

The Daily Journal
PUBLISHED BY
JAMES H. MCGRIFF.
F. M. THAYER,
JOHN H. McGRIFF,
UNDER THE FIRM OF THE

Evansville Journal Company,
Journal Buildings,
Locust Street,
BETWEEN FIRST AND WATER.
MONDAY.....NOVEMBER 6.

THE EVANSCVILLE DAILY JOURNAL

EVANSCVILLE, IND., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1865

VOLUME XVII.

ESTABLISHED, 1831

THE LATEST TELEGRAPH.

Sunday's Report.

PENINSULAR MOVEMENTS IN CANADA.

Calling Orangemen to Arms.

Fenians Drilling in Toronto at Night.

The Witz Case Still Under Advice-

ment.

Monetary and Other Items.

New York, Nov. 5.—A Herald special in circulation in gold certificates will probably commence in this city to-morrow.

No more fractional currency will be furnished to the Northern market.

About one million dollars in 5 cent notes will be sent South to supply the pressing wants of the soldiers.

Regulations in the Witz case are still under advisement by the President.

The accused is quite cheerful, though participating the death penalty.

There is much sickness among the troops in Virginia and along the Mississippi River. Troops complain of the cold.

Orders from the War Department to make out about 100 General officers of volunteers, will probably not be promulgated until after election.

The rebel Col. Lawless, formerly of the U. S. Marines, is out with an expedition of the cause of the failure of the rebellion.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4, M.—Weather rainy. River rises 1 foot 11 inches—10 feet low in the channel.

Miscellaneous Items.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Tribune's Washington special says: "During the month of October last, $2,000,000 worth of bonds have been settled."

The Collector for the District of South Carolina reports fourteen cotton manufacturing firms within his district.

The Secretary of the Treasury has ordered a large amount of postal currency.

The World's special says: "At a protracted Cabinet meeting, held to day, all the members were present, and had under consideration our foreign relations."

Secretary Seward entertained the Tunisian Embassy at his residence, on Thursday. The Cabinet was present.

THE GOVERNMENT will probably take early action on the recent proclamation by Maximilian instructing the emancipation of every prisoner taken.

The election of Congressmen has been postponed from the 13th to the 23d.

An engine exploded on the S. E. Railroad, on the 1st, and W. W. Sudder, engineer, and two firemen were killed.

MECHANICS AT LOUISVILLE.—The Louisville Press says:

Complaints are very general in the community of a lack of mechanical labor, and of skillful artisans. The growth of the manufacturing interest of the city is very much retarded, if not entirely stopped, by the want of men of skill, and of all the mechanical departments. Even common day laborers are scarce; but clerks and gentlemen are very abundant. It appears that everybody is trying to make money without labor, or by speculation. Brick layers are scarce, house joiners, masons, etc., are scarce, and we hear of several cases wherein contractors have offered $10 per day for good hands to do particular work, but could not secure them at that. The same remarks are equally applicable to the tin and iron workers.

ATTENTION TO POISON.—A day or two since a married lady of this city sent a little girl to Martindale's drug store, where she purchased five cents' worth of strichnine and took the same to the woman who sent her, who was weary of life and would have poisoned herself but for the jolting of the carriage in the intervals of other parties. It is but two months since the lady was married, but that time has added her heart, till life has become a burden. There is a law severe in penalty against selling poison in that careless manner, and it should be enforced or repealed.—Lafayette Courier.

AN UNFORTUNATE POSITION.—The Milford Journal says: "A young lady of this town, whose husband entered a drug store, where she purchased five cents' worth of strichnine and took the same to the woman who sent her, who was weary of life and would have poisoned herself but for the jolting of the carriage in the intervals of other parties. It is but two months since the lady was married, but that time has added her heart, till life has become a burden. There is a law severe in penalty against selling poison in that careless manner, and it should be enforced or repealed.—Lafayette Courier.

EXPLOSIONS TO BE PREVENTED.—A London chemist has discovered that glass ground very fine being mixed with gunpowder renders it non-explosive, without loss of its red-hot power. He has also invented a box of gunpowder without the slightest explosion, though when it was fired it exploded freely. This is a valuable discovery, rendering it possible to store and transport powder in a non-explosive state, thus saving multitudes of lives.

FROM TENNESSEE.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—A special to the Western Telegraph from Baltimore says that one of the extensive Woodbury mills, known as the Clipper Mills, belonging to W. E. Hooper & Sons, on the Northern Central Railroad, three miles from Baltimore, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The value of the damage was $15,000, and was destroyed. Stock mostly covered by insurance. Two hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

FENIANS IN CANADA.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Herald has published a manifesto declaring that the Fenians are threatening Canada, and calling Orangemen to arms. The Fenians, however, have been released by the British Government, and are now in the Province of Quebec, and the Fenians have been released by the Canadian Government.

ON HAWAII.—The steamer Emily B. Louder, from Charleston on the 2d, having 150 passengers, brought the news of the capture of Fort Sumter, and arrived at Honolulu on the 10th.

RELIGIOUS.

Religious Notes.

Elder George F. Pentecost, formerly of this city, may be expected to preach every evening this week, at 7 o'clock, at Martin Hall, now occupied by the First Baptist Church. The public are cordially invited to attend.

MARRIED.

Rev. J. B. Sawtelle, at the residence of the bride's father, James J. Orr, of Evansville, Ind., to Miss Katie, daughter of Lewis Hayes, of Memphis, Tenn.

A CARD.

W. H. MATTHEWS, late of Louisville, Ky., late of Louisville, Ky.

DEALERS IN—

Agricultural Implements,

SEEDS,

WOOD AND WILLOW WARE,

AND—

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES,

No. 44 Main Street,

EVANSCVILLE, INDIANA.

not at

COAL.

Coal Coal!

A FULL SUPPLY OF GREEN RIVER COAL,

always to be had in quantities to suit

changers, and dealers.

GREEN RIVER COAL OFFICE,

No. 4 Water street, between Locust and Main streets, up stairs.

not at

Saturday's Report

Statement of Naval Claims Adjusted.

More Postal Currency to be issued.

A Protracted Cabinet Meeting Held.

Foreign Affairs Under Consideration.

Sporting.

New York, Nov. 4.—In the trotting on the Fashion Course yesterday, Lucy to a 250 pound wagon against Honest John in harness, $1,000, mile heats, three in five, the fastest won all the heats, $100, $75, $50, $25, $20, $15, $10, $5, $2.50, $2.25, $2.00, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25, $1.00, $0.75, $0.50, $0.25, $0.10, $0.05, $0.02, $0.01.

John Wilkes and Commodore Vanderbilt are announced to run the post-matched this afternoon on the Union Course.

FORREST MONROE, Nov. 2.—The Fatherine fleet sailed for San Francisco under the command of Commodore Vanderbilt, Tucuman, Potosi, and the double-turreted Monitor Monadnock.

The fleet will go via St. Thomas.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The Democrats of Richland County, Illinois, nominated for county officers men who were bitter in their denunciations of the war for the Union and of the President for prosecuting it to a successful issue; the Union men nominated a full ticket of returned soldiers; and yet the Democracy claim to be the great friends of the soldiers!

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The Democrats of Richland County, Illinois, nominated for county officers men who were bitter in their denunciations of the war for the Union and of the President for prosecuting it to a successful issue; the Union men nominated a full ticket of returned soldiers; and yet the Democracy claim to be the great friends of the soldiers!

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout

the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.

HOWLING.—The rebel press throughout the country is howling over a false report that Dr. Mudd had been put to the torture of the thumbscrew, in order to extort from him a confession as to who had aided him in his attempted escape.

The Henderson News alludes to the report, and says: "Words are few capable to paint the sordid harbo'rism of Abolition hate and vengeance." Of course there is no truth in the report, but rebel editors and converts from the penitentiary are fruitful in inventing falsehoods with which to feed their malignity and denounce the loyal men of the nation.